Thursday, September 21st 2017

827 Seymour St.

Family Home Expectations

- Ability to provide trauma informed care
- A safe living environment with private bedroom
- Alcohol and drug free home
- Supervision of youth outside of day program

We Provide

- Day program Monday to Friday
- Ongoing support
- Excellent remuneration (Non taxable income)

A community based youth justice program, that provides supportive caregivers in the community. When the youth are not in program they are in your home where you provide supervision. There are two different types of day programs that the youth attend daily 9:00 am to 4:00pm which are:

- 1) the sky program; a general life skills program
- 2) the Osprey program; a treatment program.
